Consecrate meaning bible

When we were saved, we were reborn again with the life of God. What a truly wonderful and joyful experience! But regeneration is just the beginning of our spiritual journey. After we are regenerated, the next step is to consecrate, or give us to the Lord. In this post, we look at the meaning of the consecration, and because it is a crucial step in our life trip with the Lord. What is the consecration? In religion, the word consecration is commonly used in reference to the official order of a person to be a shepherd, priest or missionary. This use implies that the consecration is something that is reserved for a special category of people. But the New Testament reveals that it is something that every believer in Christ can, and should, experience. Consecration is not even something for expert or spiritually mature Christians. Rather, we all need to consecrate to the Lord, in order to deepen the personal knowledge of Christ and grow in divine life, even if we just obtained saved. This is because the consecration is the basis for every spiritual experience. So what is the consecration? The consecration is giving yourself the Lord to become "a living sacrifice", as Paul says in Romans 12: 1: À € à,~ "you are therefore there, brothers, through the compassions of God to present your bodies a sacrifice living, holy, well pleasant to God, who is your reasonable service. In the Old Testament, the sacrifices were arranged apart for God being placed on the altar. In offering something to God, one gave up the property of Quell. Item. Instead, it belonged to God, for its use and satisfaction. Today, when we consecrated ourselves to the Lord, we become a living sacrifice. This means that we put ourselves completely in his hands. Before consecrated ourselves, the our life was for the search for our goals and satisfaction; now, it is for him. When we present to the Lord as a living sacrifice, we are simply saying him: a gentleman Jesus, my life is for you. I don't belong to myself, in the world Or from anything else. Ia here for you and for your satisfaction reasons.À € four because we should consecrate to the Lord 1. To walk in a way that the gross s first we were saved, we took our way, made our decisions, and chose The direction of our life. After we were saved, God wants us that we walk on him and is driven by him. But if we don't give it to him, how can we know what the street of him? How can you guide us? Consecrating ourselves to him keeps us on the road and save us from taking our way. We can pray À »À € à,~", I don't want to take my decisions or take my way. I want to be kept on your way. So Lord Jesus, I give you to you.a 2. To grow in life when Christ enters In us, we are regenerated with its divine life. His intention is for that divine life in us to grow. But any kind of life needs the appropriate environment to grow. Arrange every part of ourselves and every aspect of the Our life to him creates the best environment for divine life to grow in us. Our experience of Christ is significantly influenced by the fact that we give ourselves or not to the Lord. Without consecring to him, it is difficult to say if something is According to God's will, and if you do it. But when we give up to the Lord, we spontaneously feel that he likes it and what doesn't. This feeling is the result of the divine life of God who works in us, and is activated by ours Consecration. While we follow God Obedend Or to this sense, we grow in divine life in a real and practical way. 3. Allow God to work in us before we can work for God, God needs to work in us. Even if we are at the saved, he still has to conform ourselves our Feelings, decisions and arrangement of its guests all our BEEE at the image of his son, as Romans 8:29 says. God is omnipotent, but in his relationship with us, he is not a dictator. He respects our free will and does not forced his own over U.S; Rather, he needs our consent to work freely in us. Our consecration is our consent. God is patient, and he will wait until we give him permission to work in us to achieve the purpose of him. Instead of resisting him, we can pray, a gentleman, I give the work permit in me. I am gladly I offer you. Lord, I open the door of my heart to you. Come to every room in my heart and conform to your image in every way.À € 4. To enjoy the riches of enjoying salvation enjoy salvation is full of riches. Ephesians 1: 3 tells us that God blessed us with every spiritual blessing in Christ. These blessings are divine life, Christa s perfect humanity and life, his effective death, his powerful resurrection, his victory over Satan, his ascension over all things, and much more. The way we are able to enter into the enjoyment of all these blessings is by ourselves to consecrate to him. We already have them, but for us to enjoy them in our experience, we must consecrate to God. In this regard, consecration. It's like a door. To enter a building, we have to go through a door. If you donÀ € t, no matter what wonderful thing awaits us on the other side, we have caÀ ± to tease or participate. The consecration is the door for us to enter to enjoy all the riches of enjoy salvation. Whoever gives himself to the Lord, he will guide us in our experience in the enjoyment of the rich blessings of enjoying full salvation. We can pray, a gentleman, gives me t just want to know the riches of your salvation; I want to enjoy them. Lord, here I am here. I give you completely. I belong to you. Guide me from your spirit in the experience and enjoyment of everything you have for me in your salvation.À € Take the next step Our salvation is the first step of our spiritual journey. The next step is to consecrate to the Lord. When we do this, wea to be kept so enjoy s, grow in the lives of him, allow him to operate in us, and enjoy the riches of the full salvation of him. Both we are to older believers just saved or, each of us can give ourselves to the Lord. We are able to present ourselves to the Lord right now.
